ROGERS MANUFACTURING CO., INC.

110 Transit Avenue
Nashville, TN 37210
Phone:615 244 9720
Fax: 615 244 9719

HYDRAULIC MECHANIC POSITION

Duties of a Hydraulic Mechanic:

- Experience in the following is a plus: mobile hydraulics, electronics, wiring & electrical, welding, and custom build heavy assembly.
- Must also be able to read drawings and schematics required for installation, successfully troubleshoot and repair systems.
- Be knowledgeable on various transmissions and the appropriate PTO and pumps necessary for proper dump truck operation
- Must be able to follow read central hydraulic schematics and use for guides on proper installation
- Listen to direction from department supervision and comply with ROGERS work standards Inspects hydraulic systems
- Work with truck electrical and lighting systems to incorporate into the operation of dump truck and related components
- Must be knowledgeable of existing air systems and how systems to incorporate into the operation of dump truck and related components
- Strong understanding of in-cab controls and ability to use both air or cable operated attachments

General Workplace Requirements:

Communicates any unsafe conditions or accidents in a timely manner
Improve operations, streamline work processes, work cooperatively to provide seamless costumer services

A Hydraulic mechanic has a working condition that is normal for manufacturing environment; work involves lifting materials and machinery tools. He operates heavy equipments and requires the use of safety equipment such as safety glasses, hearing protectors, and work boots. Overtime work maybe needed depending on the work load and capacity of the manufacturing operation.

Experience:

Extensive hydraulic and technical experience in open and closed hydraulic systems
Experience with hydraulic motors, valve and cylinder rebuilding
Welding knowledge
Skills in using heavy and power tools
Entry-level employment as a Mechanic/Technician.

Other requirements:

Must pass drug test
Competent mechanical skills

ROGERS
NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE
Another word for Quality